Racism is not tolerated in Strathtulloh Primary School

Strathtulloh Primary School is committed to fostering a welcoming, inclusive environment where racism is not tolerated. Racism harms students' mental health, learning and sense of belonging. We celebrate the diversity of cultures, ethnicities and faiths of all our students. It is up to all of us at Strathtulloh Primary School to make our school a place that is free of racism

What Strathtulloh Primary School is doing to prevent racism

Strathtulloh Primary School follows the Department of Education's Preventing and Addressing Racism in Schools Policy. We are building a culturally safe school with inclusive learning for everyone by working with staff, students, families, carers and communities. We will:

- provide programs that teach about and celebrate diversity, inclusion and the impact of racism to build understanding and empathy
- use practices that support all students to thrive
- implement anti-racism efforts to prevent and address racism effectively
- make sure everyone feels safe, with clear and accessible pathways to report racism

What to do if your child experiences or witnesses racism at school

If your child experiences or witnesses racism or religious discrimination at school, please let us know. You can tell your child's teacher or email the school directly strathtulloh.ps@education.vic.gov.au.

Report Racism hotline

If you don't feel comfortable reporting racism to school, or you are not happy with the school's response, you can report racism to:
